Delbert McClinton tops all-star lineup at Historic Mansfield Music Festival

The Historic Mansfield Music Festival has assembled an all-star lineup of heavy-hitting North Texas music acts for a two-day event October 16 and 17. Headliner Delbert McClinton will top 12-plus hours of music performed on two stages. With an expected attendance of 7,000 or more, this festival is becoming one of the most talked about events around the state.

While McClinton is the show's headliner, the special guests that will precede him on stage are among North Texas' best musicians. Friday night starts with a bang when Poo Live Crew takes the stage at 7:00 p.m. Poo Live Crew—recently voted Best Cover Band by Fort Worth Weekly—is a carefully constructed plethora of music from '68 to '98. Not to exclude any genre, "the Poo" mixes in eighties, pop rock, love ballads, new wave, country, pop divas, and even sitcom themes. Headlining Friday night's lineup is the Grammy® Award winning band Brave Combo. The Chicago Tribune dubs the Denton-based quintet "a party band with a purpose."

Saturday's musical lineup consists of: Crawfish (New Orleans Party Music); Dave Alexander's Western Swing (Country & Western); Naked Lunch (Steely Dan tribute band); David Carr, Jr. (Smooth Jazz); Breggett Rideau (Soul/R&B/Blues); Party Crashers (Classic Rock 'n' Roll & party music); Jim Suhler & Monkey Beat (Blues); Bubba Hernandez y Los Super Vatos (Funky Latin Jazz/Rock); FM with Annalisa Bailey (Jazz, R&B, Disco, Top 40, '60s to '90s); and, headliner Delbert McClinton (Rock, Blues, Country, Americana, Delbert).

Admission to the Historic Mansfield Music Festival is free.
